

Raymond A. Barker

Water Treatment Plant Expansion

Contract 2 – WTP Expansion FIN2023-001T

Engage Collingwood Update #4
April 2025

Progress Photos

Site aerial photo March 2025. Construction dewatering area constructed in north west corner.

Installation of temporary yard piping for temporary Industrial Supply pump station.

Project progress

Second drill rig mobilized to site. Drilling caissons for surge chamber and membrane building.

Temporary Industrial Supply pump station excavation. Suction header installed on base slab.

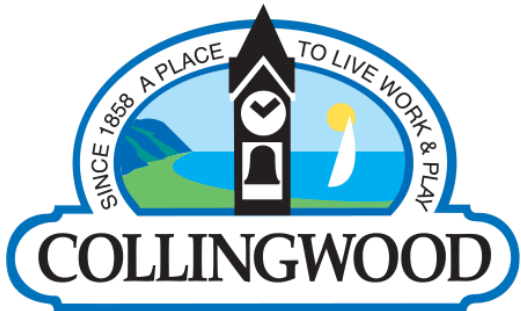

Progress Since Last Update

- Excavation and preparation for temporary Industrial Supply pump station has been completed.
- Drilling for caisson piles continues for excavation and foundation work. A second drill rig has been brought on site.
- Construction dewatering control and treatment facility is complete.
- Equipment and materials are being delivered to site.
- The Public are reminded to please be mindful this is an active construction site with equipment entering and leaving regularly.

Follow The Project Online!

engage Collingwood

